ON 16 OCTOBER 2019 SURREY COUNTY COUNCIL MADE the above mentioned Temporary Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which will be to prohibit vehicles from entering or proceeding in that length of Ruxley Lane Service Road (D2097), West Ewell that extends from its junction with Fendall Road (D2160), to its junction with Cox Lane (D2097). This Traffic Order is required to allow for footway slurry works and/or maintenance works on behalf of Surrey County Council. These works are anticipated to be carried out between the hours of 7am and 5pm, as soon as possible within the 18 month period of operation of this Temporary Order that commences on 01 November 2019. Advanced warning signs will be displayed and the temporary closure will only operate when the relevant traffic signs are displayed. Access for emergency services, pedestrians; dismounted cyclists and equestrians will be maintained at all times. Access for residences and businesses on the affected length of Ruxley Lane Service Road (D2097), will be maintained to the point of closure via the vehicular diversion route which will be: Fendall Road, Ruxley Lane, Cox Lane and Ruxley Lane. In the event that it is necessary to restrict any access at any time, under Section 3 of The Act access may only be restricted for a maximum of 8 hours in any 24 hour period. Any vehicle found to be obstructing the highway during these works will be removed to a suitable location outside the limits of the works after all reasonable methods have been undertaken to identify and contact the vehicle's owner.
