

Quarter 2 Voluntary Action South West Surrey (VASWS) Scorecard November 2020

1. Volunteering Overview

Registrations requiring no further action	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4
	22	8	0	0

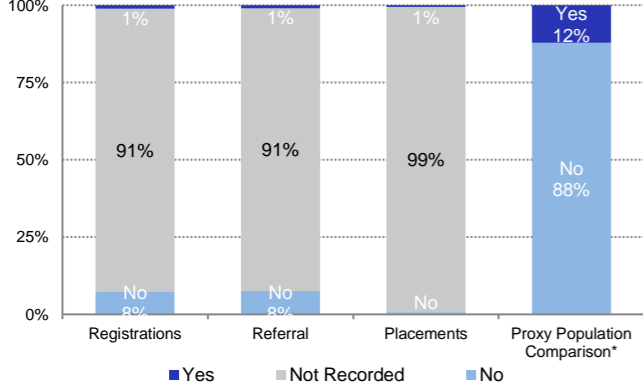

2. Volunteers still in place after 2 months

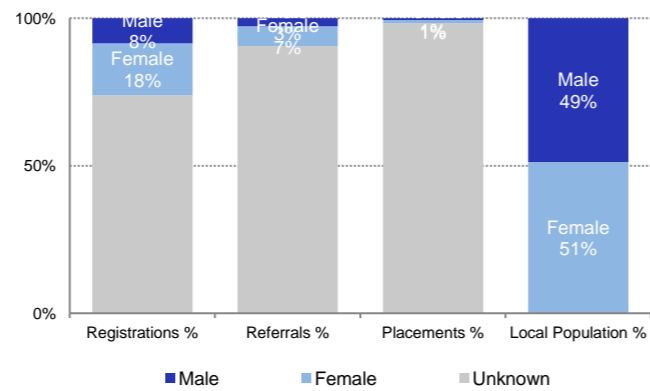

Top Three Achievements this quarter

1. Reopened Volunteer Centre: made it COVID safe, training new volunteers
2. Welcome to Volunteering: 5 week project using 12 WTV volunteers allowing them to host their first outdoor event of the year - offering ongoing support. Also supporting Watts Gallery and Care Ashore as many of their volunteers are older and yet to return. Using the WTV volunteers has diversified their volunteer workforce.
3. Networks, Volunteering Fair, Volunteer Buddies and Social Prescription: Network meetings have continued via Zoom - very successful transition. Virtual stand at the University of Law Freshers Fair, where we spoke to students about volunteering opportunities. Continuing with Volunteer Buddies project - £10,000 received from SCF to sustain this...this project uses volunteers to provide short term assistance to people needing a hand with a wide range of tasks. Three new Social Prescriber Link Workers joined taking the total to 6.
