1. Identify your policy Aim

Under Section 222 Local Government Act 1972 and Section 187b of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 a Local Authority can apply to the Courts in trespass and for a breach of planning control to be restrained by an anticipatory injunction and for that to apply to 'persons unknown'.

The current injunction expires on 10 November 2022. Surrey County Council ("the Local Authority") wishes to obtain a fresh continuing injunction.

The aim of the injunction, if granted is to:-

1. Prevent vehicles and caravans from entering Chobham Common, Chobham, Surrey for the purposes of occupation;
2. Prevent the setting up of illegal encampments on Chobham Common, Chobham, Surrey
3. Prevent fly tipping and dumping of associated domestic and commercial waste on Chobham Common, Chobham, Surrey

2. Consider the data and research

The current injunction has resulted in a significant drop in unauthorised encampments on Chobham Common. It has proven to be an efficient and cost effective method of reducing disruption to the use of a site of Special Scientific Interest and Nature Reserve.

Without the benefit of the injunction, the method of removing persons associated with illegal encampments would be:

- Limited by virtue of the legislation available (Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994). No sooner has a camp been removed but a short time later a new camp often with the same or similar people involved and the removal process re-starts.
- Community wellbeing – enjoyment free movement access and use of Chobham Common, Chobham, Surrey
- Expensive in terms of cost of Officer time, Court fees, Bailiffs, Clean up and Reparations and
- Time consuming – the work carried out by the Technical Team, Legal and any other team on removal of an encampment is time not spent on other tasks.

3. Assess the likely impact on protected characteristics

Please refer to the table below

Protected Characteristics	Effect
Age	The immediate impact on older people and young people in an encampment would relate to the stress of any forced eviction generally and in relation to children their ability to access education Welfare checks would continue to be carried out and advice provided for local facilities if required
Disability	No negative effect. - Welfare checks would continue to be carried out and advice provided for local facilities if required
Gender Reassignment	No negative effect
Marriage and Civil Partnerships	No negative effect
Pregnancy and Maternity	No negative effect - Welfare checks would continue to be carried out and advice provided for local facilities if required
Race	People of the Gypsy Roma and Travelling Community who have their own ethnicity and distinct identity and culture are most likely to be affected by this injunction. Their needs must be treated with respect and dignity and the Council must be aware of any potential conflict between their ways of life and the need to uphold their rights under the Human Rights Act. The proposed measure would be preventative, there are 17 dedicated permanent sites in the County. There are no dedicated transit sites in Surrey. There are many other locations in the County. Therefore a person's expectation to remain on Chobham Common from 3 days to two weeks will be prevented. This must be balanced with the laws of the land, the environment, the wildlife and natural habitats, local by-laws and the rights and entitlements of the local residents affected by Traveller movements, their way of life and behaviour.
Religion and belief	No negative effect

Consider alternative policies

Policy	Considerations
No change	Inefficient and costly process, ineffective current legislation, community wellbeing is not promoted and residents and users in the County do not have the enjoyment of Chobham Common at ever increasing rate.
Increase defences at prime locations	This has commenced and is ongoing however there will be displacement elsewhere that this injunction will address

4. Consult

The measure is preventative, those who would be affected by the injunction are almost certain to object therefore consultation with that group has not been undertaken. There are 17 permanent traveller sites within the County and it is proposed to consult with these residents and engage with the various groups that represent and assist the GRT community during the time period of the initial interim Injunction should it be granted.

5. Conclusion

We have considered the issues identified and aim to apply for a fresh continuing injunction in September November 2022, upon the expiry of the injunction that was obtained in 2019. In particular :

(i) All persons People of the Gypsy Roma and Travelling Community who have their own ethnicity and distinct identity and culture are most likely to be affected by this injunction. The effect of the injunction will be to prevent illegal encampments on Chobham Common. It is only this land that will be subject to the proposed injunction, preventing encampments, occupation and waste depositing. There will be many other areas of land in the County that could be occupied.

(ii) The injunction will prevent those who might try and expect to remain for a long period of time on Chobham Common to be moved on more swiftly.

(iii) The Council acknowledges there are no dedicated transit sites throughout Surrey and that Traveller's needs must be treated with respect and dignity and the council must be aware of any potential conflict between their ways of life and the need to uphold their rights under the Human Rights Act. This must be balanced with the laws of the land, local bye-laws, the environment and the wildlife and natural habitats, the rights and entitlements of the residents and visitors to Surrey affected and the cost of removal and reparation by the Council as a result of Traveller movements, their way of life and behaviour.

(iv) While not specific to the Gypsy and Traveller community, all appropriate health and welfare assessments would continue to be carried out regardless of the Court Order. Notification of this being the case will be incorporated into the proposed Court Order.

(v) The Public Sector Equality Duty places a responsibility on authorities to foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it, in addition to the requirements to eliminate unlawful discrimination and advance equality of opportunity.

(vii) The Council sees it as vitally important when removing an unauthorised incursion or encampment that the conduct of all involved accords well with the Equality Duty and also its human rights obligations.

(viii) There is a considerable amount of evidence of the impacts the incursions and associated antisocial behaviour had on local settled communities and on Council resources before the existing injunction was granted and the benefits the injunction has brought.

(ix) This evidence has to be balanced against the possibility of any negative impact there may be on particular groups involved with the occupation of Council owned or maintained land.

(x) Consideration of these equality and human rights issues have been taken into account in applying for this Order.

6. Make arrangements to monitor and review the changes.

The existing injunction has been kept under review. No issues have ever been raised about it and no adjustments have been required.

There will be an on-going assessment of the new injunction and any issues that are raised will be looked and where possible, adjustments made.

If and when the injunction is granted it is subject to the court process, the Traveller's rights are therefore well protected, in addition their health and welfare needs will also continue to be considered as part of the Council's duties.

7. Publish results of the assessment

This equality impact assessment will be published in the relevant part of the Council website.
