What needs to change in 2023

Surrey People's Group
Supporting the learning disabled in Surrey

We want people with a learning disability to have their say to help change happen even if they can't come to our event on the 6th December.

Some of the things we have been told

- I want a bus pass
- I want to be paid for the work I do
- I want my own home
- I want to stay out late
- I want to get married

Type in the boxes below, save to your computer and email back to us. You can also print this out and bring it to the event on 6th December.

Things you have done that you are proud of

Your hopes and dreams for the future

What makes it hard for you to live the life you want

What needs to change in 2023?

Things you have done that you are proud of

communication not enough staff to go ou people feel sorry for me being myself getting work need help with chores back pain writing cost of living health system patience not able to get out not believing in ability not enough support hours relationship with staff

Your hopes and dreams for the future

What happens now?

- Health feedback has been sent to the liaison nurses and other health colleagues
- Travel feedback has been sent to commissioning who are working on the transport consultation
- Presentation to the Learning Disability Partnership Board
- Use feedback to work out what to work on in 2023
- Develop a strong planning / advisory group
- Have regular events to involve more people
