

SURREY HERITAGE TRAVELLING DISPLAYS

These travelling displays all have velcro dots and must be collected from Surrey History Centre.
They are all loaned free of charge.

To book, please contact Lauren Stevens on 01483 518745 or lauren.stevens@surreycc.gov.uk

Surrey and the Great War 1914-1918 (Home Fires and Foreign Fields)

24 flexible panels (each panel 64cm wide x 74cm high) with titles as follows

1914

War Declared
The British Army
The British Army
Kitchener's Army
Training
The Royal Navy & Royal Flying Corps

Home Front

Rationing
Fundraising
Industry
Air Raids
Prisoners of War
Military Hospitals

At The Front

Trench Life
Weapons of War
Out of the Line
Beyond the Western Front
Over the Top
Casualties of War
War Heroes
Women go to War

Peace!

Peace Celebrations
Cost of the War
Spanish Flu
Aftermath

Sources for Surrey Family History (Relative Connections)

22 flexible panels (each panel 64cm wide x 74cm high)
with titles as follows

Introduction – 2 panels

Family Papers – 6 panels

Poor Law – 6 panels

Parish Registers – 4 panels

Census – 4 panels

Flavours of Surrey

12 lightweight flexible panels size A1, with titles as follows

Surrey and Food

Food in the Stone Age

Iron Age and Roman

Early Medieval Food

Late Medieval Food

Global Influences

Institutional Food

A New Century

World War 2

The Food Criminals

Surrey Specials

Modern and Traditional

John Broadwood and Sons, Piano Makers

20 flexible panels (each panel 64cm wide x 74cm high) with titles as follows

Family and Firm – 8 panels

Pianos and People – 8 panels

Conservation – 4 panels

Lucy Etheldred Broadwood – 4 panels

Buried Battles and Veterans' Voices – The Surrey Regiments

12 flexible panels (each panel 64cm wide x 74cm high) with titles as follows

Introductory panel (background to the project)

The Queen's (Royal West Surrey) Regiment, 1661-1902

The East Surrey Regiment, 1702-1902

The Regiments in India

The Queen's (Royal West Surrey) in the Great War

The East Surrey Regiment during the Great War

The Queen's (Royal West Surrey) during the Second World War

The East Surrey Regiment during the Second World War

The Regiments, 1945-1959

Off Duty

End of an Era

Using the Regimental Collection

Royal Surrey through the Ages

5 hard panels
(each panel AO 119cm wide x 84cm high)
with titles as follows

Surrey and the Saxon Kingdoms

The Presence of Kings

The Royal Family

Maintaining Royal Influence

Celebrating Royal Surrey

Exploring Surrey's Past (ESP)

An online resource promoting social history, archaeology and heritage in Surrey

6 flexible panels (each panel 59.5cm wide x 84cm high) with titles as follows

An area panel highlighting history, archaeology and heritage in your borough

Exploring Surrey's Past - explaining the website and the resources available.

Exploring Archaeology - introducing the Historic Environment Record

Exploring Archives - describing the materials available at Surrey History Centre

Exploring Local History - explaining how to use ESP and the available sources

Exploring Museums - details of some of the participating museums

Surrey's Sporting Life

25 flexible panels
(each panel 600mm wide x 600mm high) with titles as follows

Surrey's motor racing heritage - Connaught Racing

A brief history of Brooklands

Amy Pasco 1866-1917

Mike Hawthorn 1929-1959 "The Farnham Flyer"

Golf and Reigate Heath

Cycling - a social movement

Women cyclists

Cycle speedway

Amy Gentry, 1930s rowing champion

Sunbury Regatta programme 1885

Dorking Shrove Tuesday football - the procession

Dorking Shrove Tuesday football - the match

Women's football

Surrey and the origins of cricket

Felix on the bat

The Bedser twins

Silver Billy and Lumpy Stevens

Julius Caesar 1830-1878, born and died in Godalming, Surrey

Bisley Camp and the National Rifle Association

Marjorie Foster – the first woman to win the King's prize 1930

The Epsom Derby

Emily Davison

Epsom racing firsts (List)

Baseball and William Bray in 1755

1948 Olympic Torch Run Through Surrey

Sport

10 flexible panels (which complement Surrey's Sporting Life)
(each panel 600mm wide x 600mm high) with titles as follows

Wenlock Olympian Games / National Olympian Games

Olympic Games London 1908

Olympic Games London 1948

Sebastian Coe

Jonathan Edwards

Steve Redgrave

Bobby Moore 1960 World Cup

Coxless Four Athens 2004

Paralympic Games

Paralympic Freestyle Team Beijing 2008

The March of the Women: Surrey's Road to the Vote

2018 marked the centenary of the Representation of the People Act 1918 which first gave women of property over the age of 30 the right to vote in national elections. Supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund, and produced by Surrey Heritage as part of their project 'The March of the Women: Surrey's Road to the Vote', this exhibition reveals some of the unique stories in the county's long suffrage campaign.

Quantity: 12 x pop-up exhibition banners available, can be 'mix and match' but would always need panels 1 and 12.

Assembly: free-standing and single-sided banners, spring loaded 'roll-up' style, with rod and fold out feet stands.

Size: each panel is 200cm (H) x 80cm (W)

Titles as follows:

Panel 1 – The March of the Women: Surrey's Road to the Vote (shown above)

Introductory panel overview; project aims and partners; and main suffrage names

Panel 2 – The Growth of the Suffrage Movement in Surrey

The C19th voting situation; Augusta Spottiswoode in Guildford; the first meetings in

Guildford 1871 & 1890; and NUWSS and WSPU definitions

Panel 3 – Suffragists in Surrey: The Peaceful Protest

NUWSS in Surrey; Mary Watts in Compton; Helena Auerbach in Reigate; Joan Harvey Drew of Blackheath Village; Gertrude Jekyll in Godalming; and The Women's Freedom League

Panel 4 – Suffragists in Surrey: The Long Road to the Vote

NUWSS locally including Guildford and District Women's Suffrage Society; Helena Auerbach and Reigate, Redhill & District Society for Women's Suffrage

Panel 5 – Suffragists in Surrey: The Great Pilgrimage

1913: the route through Surrey, including Haslemere, Godalming and Guildford; and Dorothy Hunter, the Haslemere suffragist

Panel 6 – Leading Suffrage Supporters in Surrey: Peaceful vs Militant

NUWSS and the WSPU; the Farrers of Abinger; and the Pethick Lawrences of Dorking

Panel 7 – Suffragettes in Surrey: Early Activism

WSPU in Surrey; Peaslake militants; Ethel Smyth in Woking and her connections with Emmeline Pankhurst

Panel 8 – Suffragettes in Surrey: Militancy Continues

1913 arson attacks: David Lloyd George's house, Walton-on-the-Hill, Englefield Green by Elsie Duval and Olive Beamish; and Oxted station bomb by Frida Laski

Panel 9 – Suffragettes in Surrey: the Ultimate Sacrifice

Emily Wilding Davison at the Epsom Derby, 1913; arson at Hurst Park Racecourse, West Molesey and Chipstead church; newspaper reports

Panel 10 – The Anti-Suffrage Campaign in Surrey

Overview of the National League for Opposing Woman Suffrage, featuring Reigate and Brockham

Panel 11 – Anti-Suffragists in Surrey: Active Women in the Community

Bertha Broadwood of Capel; and Margaretta Lemon MBE of Reigate

Panel 12 – The March is Over: Women get the Vote!

The final push for the vote; WW1; and when the vote was extended

Travelling Archaeology Displays

Food and eating in Prehistory

5 hard panels (each panel 60cm x 42cm) with titles as follows

Gathering and hunting

Food preparation

Fat of the land

Tableware
By-products

Surrey through Time

7 flexible panels (each panel 41cm x 57cm or 83cm x 60cm) with titles as follows

The landscape of hunter gatherers and the first farmers

The transformation of the landscape by farming

The use of stone in Medieval buildings

The making of the Medieval and Modern landscape

The changing of the past revealed by quarrying

People, society and a landscape in transition

The disappearing landscapes of the Palaeolithic

The Romans in Surrey

5 flexible panels (each panel 58cm x 84cm) with titles as follows

Surrey before the Romans

The Roman Conquest of Southern Britain

Roman Settlement in Surrey

Religion and Ritual

Trade and Industry

Hextalls Manor / Little Pickle – Bletchingley

3 flexible panels (each panel 30cm x 40cm or 60cm x 83cm) with titles as follows

Keeping the park: The lost manor of Hextalls, Bletchingley

Finding the park keepers: The varied sources for their history

Finding the past keepers: 5 steps to Surrey Heritage

Reigate Priory Park

2 flexible panels (each panel 120cm x 75cm) with titles as follows

A landscape of leisure

The Medieval religious house

North Park Farm

4 flexible panels (each panel 58cm x 82cm) with titles as follows

Search: How archaeology will reveal the past at North Park Farm

Sun: Daily life of Mesolithic hunter gatherers

Sand: Mesolithic occupation at North Park Farm quarry

Stone: How hunter-gatherers made tool kits from flint

M25 Clacket Lane Services

3 flexible panels with titles as follows
(each panel 53cm x 72cm)

Pottery and People

Digging for History

Roads and Religion

Woking Palace

2 flexible panels with titles as follows
(each panel 60cm x 83cm)

The Moated Manor

Royal Splendour

Single Panel Travelling Archaeology Displays

History from the earth: Archaeological excavations at the Crown Hotel (Chertsey)

1 hard panel (27cm x 40cm)

The archaeology of food and farming from Prehistory to Medieval

1 flexible panel (245cm x 90cm)

The archaeological evidence for ancient worship and belief

1 flexible panel (245cm x 90cm)

The change in houses through the ages

1 flexible panel (245cm x 90cm)

Who are Surrey County Archaeological Unit (SCAU) and what prompts an archaeological investigation?

1 hard panel (118cm x 87cm)

Elixirs and educations (Royal Holloway College)

1 flexible panel (50cm x 20cm or 42cm x 60cm or 55cm x 74cm)

The sacred river (River finds)

1 flexible panel (30cm x 40cm) or 1 hard panel (30cm x 40cm or 50cm x 78cm)

A higher plane: Coopers Hill memorial poster (Englefield Green)

1 hard panel (30cm x 40cm) or 1 flexible panel (42cm x 60cm or 54cm x 74cm)

A damnable invention: The remains of Chilworth Gunpowder Mills 1625-1920

1 flexible panel (76cm x 57cm)

The chapel and the fair (St Catherine's Hill)

1 flexible panel (76cm x 57cm)

Surrey and the origins of cricket

1 flexible panel (59cm x 83cm)

Liberty and law – The Magna Carta

1 flexible panel (30cm x 40cm or 42cm x 60cm)

Bronze Age barrows on Horsell Common

1 flexible panel (38cm x 53cm)

Iron Age settlement near Tongham

1 flexible panel (59cm x 85cm)

Truss's Island (Staines-upon-Thames)

1 flexible panel (52cm x 77cm)

South Park - The moat (Reigate)

1 flexible panel (81cm x 60cm)

Towns in Surrey

Englefield Green

1 hard panel (57cm x 83cm)

Chertsey

1 hard panel (83cm x 66cm)

Thorpe

1 hard panel (83cm x 62cm)

