Domestic Abuse Advice for Early Help Advisors and Partner Agencies

Book in if you're supporting a family:

- Who are experiencing incidents of domestic abuse
- If you are concerned about a family but are unsure whether it is domestic abuse related
- If you require advice in respect of the DASH assessment
- If you need support and guidance with safety planning
- If you need support and advice around speaking to a survivor/victim, perpetrator, or their children
- If you require signposting information
- If you require information regarding MARAC

Note: Those young people at higher risk of domestic abuse include:

- Unborn and very young children (up to 18 months)
- Vulnerable children
- If there are stepchildren within the family
- If there are alcohol and substance misuse or mental health issues within the family

How to Book:

Send an email to the Early Help Hub inbox: earlyhelphub@surreycc.gov.uk ensuring that "Domestic Abuse Advice" is in the email subject title. Tell us which day you'd like to attend and provide the ICS number. On receipt of the email we will contact you to confirm a time.

Advice recording for Partner Agencies:

All advice and guidance provided will be recorded on the Helping Families Early Form in EHM by the Domestic Abuse Advisor.

Advice Times:

A Domestic Abuse Daily Discussion takes place at 10:00am every day via Teams. A DA Advisor and a representative from PSPA will be available to offer support and guidance. Please contact us as above if you wish to attend one of these meetings and we will send a Teams invitation. A DA Advisor will be available at any time should a colleague require support outside of the Daily Discussion
