

TEST IT TUESDAY!

It is really important that we remember to test our smoke alarms regularly to make sure they are working. To help your family remember, design a poster in the space below that will remind your family to test the smoke alarm each week.

A large rectangular area defined by a dashed line, intended for designing a poster. The area is mostly empty, with a pair of scissors icon at the top-left corner.

