

Keeping you informed

Visit www.surreycc.gov.uk/schools-and-learning/adult-learning to keep up to date. If you are a Facebook user, you can visit Surrey Family Learning page (en-gb.facebook.com/surreyfamilylearning) and see the latest news, find out about events or read features on our courses. Information is also displayed on notice-boards, posters and in leaflets in our Surrey Adult Learning centres. Follow us on Twitter @Surrey_FL .

Joining Surrey Libraries

It is free and simple to join at your local library or you can apply online at www.surreycc.gov.uk/libraries

Surrey Libraries are well equipped with computers and software, you can even access many of the online resources at home with your library card number. We recommend that all learners join the library to use the excellent facilities.

Inclusion of an organisation in this leaflet is not an endorsement on the quality of the services by the organisations listed and other organisations exist. Information correct June 2019.

Your learning is a personal journey and Family Learning would like to support you with this. The links in this leaflet will help you find out about further learning so you can continue to develop and learn as you want to.

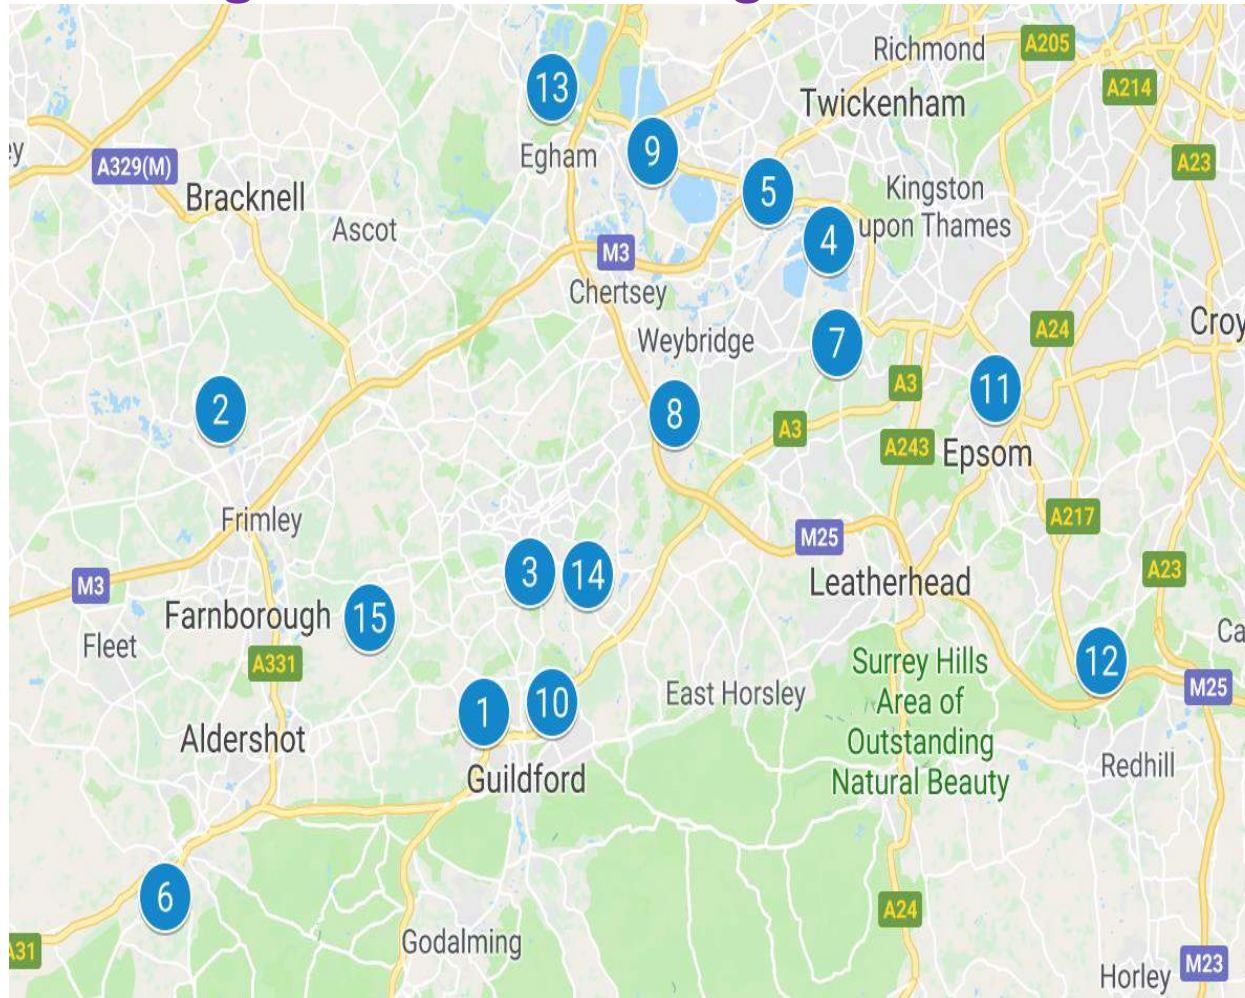

Surrey County Council's Adult Learning service offers a wide variety of courses suitable for beginners to more experienced learners. You can find a list of these courses in our Surrey Adult Learning brochure. These brochures are available at all our Adult Learning Centres, as well as at Surrey Libraries. You can also look on our website: www.surreycc.gov.uk/adultlearning. New courses are added throughout the year.

This leaflet also gives you information and websites you may find useful.
