

Questions for children

- Involve the children in reviewing your provision
- Find out what they think and feel
- Help the children choose ways to express their views, individually and together, using language familiar with them
- You may find the questions below help focus your conversations with children
- Record the identified developments on your QIA improvement plan.

Date: _____

Enjoying and achieving – enjoying:	Children’s comments:
What is your favourite toy here?
What do you like doing best? Why?
Enjoying and achieving – learning and developing independence:
What can you do by yourself here?
What would you like to try and do by yourself?
Enjoying and achieving – positive relationships:
Who do you like to play with?
Who don’t you know very well?
Making a positive contribution – planning:
What have you been doing today/this week?
What would you like to do tomorrow/next week?
Making a positive contribution – behaviour:
Do you know the rules?
What happens if someone breaks the rules?
Making a positive contribution – managing feelings:
What makes you happy when you are here?
What makes you sad?	