VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES BY SUBJECT

Volunteering gives you the opportunity to learn new skills and gain experience which will put you one step ahead when it comes to finding a job or applying to college or university. Check out this list of volunteering ideas based on subjects you may be studying or areas you may be interested in.

Some of these are opportunities with organisations across Surrey who work in a particular field for example with older people of animals and others are ideas of volunteering roles which many organisations have available.

If you want to find out more about any of these opportunities or find out about volunteering related to your interests contact your local Volunteer Centre who can give you all the information you need.
